1. The following is a translation of a Bulgarian proclamation found in Eidomeni.

BULGARIANS

SOLDIERS

OFFICERS

A new national Government has been formed. It is directed against those who have betrayed all our national aims and against those who resigned from our Union and betrayed the country to Bolshevism. Every Bulgarian should support this new Government in order to save his country from calamity.

The Soviet troops called into our country by the traitorous Government are no longer our old Russian friends. They do not bring us Freedom but slavery under the international Jewish revolution.

BULGARIANS, awake! Allow no further infiltration of bolshevism into our country.

SOLDIERS, do not submit to traitors.

OFFICERS, support the new National Government with your units.

Let every Bulgarian oppose the Soviet armies.

Destroy the bridges and roads. Form National resistance bands.

Let each of you, wherever you are, be a fanatical fighter, just as in the war of liberation from Turkish slavery.

TSANKOV

President of the Government
